
SGT135 : Cardiothoracic, Vascular and Neurology Surgery

Students will learn the concepts that are integral to cardiothoracic, peripheral vascular, and neurosurgery. Topics will include patient positioning, skin preparation, draping, incisions, anatomy, instrumentation, special supplies and equipment, scheme of the procedures, and steps necessary to properly assist the surgeon in performing the most common procedures in these specialties.

Credits	4
Clock Hours	60
Lab Hours	40
Lecture Hours	20
Prerequisites	SGT105 , SGT110