
SGT225 : St Capstone and Certification Review

This course is a review of the core surgical technology curriculum. The lecture and activities are designed to reinforce and review the program content from inception to completion with a focus on student performance, comprehension, and group information sessions. The students participate on several practice certification exams as a precursor to the NBSTSA Certified Surgical Technologist Certification Examination at the conclusion of the program.

Credits	4
Clock Hours	40
Lecture Hours	40
Prerequisites	SGT220